> Cancellation of Enrolment by the Student

Before Commencement of Course:

The student has the right to cancel their enrolment before the course commencement date. For application of refund please refer to the Refund Policy. The student must complete the 'Cessation of Studies' Form for any of the below reasons:

- Cancelling the course due to new visa status
- Cancelling the course to return home

After Commencement of Course:

The student has the right to cancel their enrolment either before or after the commencement of the course. However if you are an international student there could be some implication regarding the student visa conditions and if you are an Australian resident student and is studying the course offer under government funding there could also be implications. The student must complete the Application for Release or Cessation of Studies form (available on CSF website) and state the reason for requesting to cancel their studies at CSF with a minimum of one college term's notice before the intended cancellation date. Students wishing to cease their studies must give one term's notice otherwise they are required to pay 50% of the next term's tuition fees. Student can access the application for release/cessation of studies from the CSF website (www.csf.edu.au). All applications to be emailed back to info@csf.edu.au. All applications will be processed within 5 working days.

If the application is successful CSF will not provide a 'Release Letter' but will provide a confirmation of Cancelled CoE. If the outcome is not successful the student will have the right to appeal against CSF decision. To access CSF complaints and appeal process refer to 'Complaints and Appeals' section of this handbook.
